New Library Home Page

The University of Delaware Library launched a new home page on June 15, 2011. The design of the Library home page was simplified in order to create a more user-friendly experience. Users visiting the Library's web pages are now able to search, directly from the home page, a wide array of resources provided by the Library.

By carefully analyzing usage statistics gathered from Google Analytics, the Library was able to obtain a clearer understanding of how students, faculty and staff were actually using the Library's web pages. The new design reflects what the Library learned from this analysis and those Library services that were used most frequently were then emphasized.

Library users can start their research by looking for "Books, Videos and More" held by the Library. By clicking on the "Articles" tab, Library users can limit their search to journal articles from selected databases and book chapters. Users who prefer to use DELCAT can use that search box to search the holdings of the University of Delaware Library as well. The "Databases by name" search box helps users quickly locate all databases by title or by subject. The "E-Journals by Name" search box helps users find any journal to which the Library provides access electronically. Finally, "Research Guides" provides access to over 150 guides in many disciplines created by Library staff.

The screenshot shows the University of Delaware Library home page. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'UNIVERSITY of DELAWARE Library' and a search bar. Below that, there are two main search sections: 'Books, Videos, and More' and 'Articles'. Each section has a search box and a 'SEARCH' button. There are also links for 'Advanced Search' and 'Help'. Below the search sections, there are three more search boxes: 'DELCAT - the online catalog of the University of Delaware Library', 'DATABASES by Name', and 'E-JOURNALS by Name'. Each of these also has a search box and a 'SEARCH' button. At the bottom, there are four columns of links: 'Collections', 'Information', 'Services', 'Resources', and 'Quick Links'. On the right side, there's a sidebar with 'Ask a Librarian', 'Library Hours', and 'Library Digitizes Blue Hen'.

Greetings,

Welcome to the University of Delaware Library which includes the Morris Library and four branch libraries.

This is an exciting time for the University of Delaware Library as more and more students are using the services, facilities and collections of the Library both onsite and remotely. The Morris Library is also a favorite place to study and is open until 2:00 a.m. Sunday through Thursday nights fall and spring semesters.

New technologies allow students and faculty to have remote access to collections 24/7; ask questions of reference librarians who are subject specialists via text messaging, email or live chat; link to the Library via Facebook; and create multimedia in the Library's state-of-the-art Student Multimedia Design Center with studios, workstations and cameras for loan.

Electronic journals and databases for research and instruction licensed by the Library provide millions of documents and references available only by subscription and not freely on the Internet. Examples are large databases like the Web of Science, and JSTOR; image databases like ARTstor; and comprehensive worldwide resources such as WorldCat Local with its links to over 194 million books and 530 million article citations. The Library also has created more than 150 new online Research Guides which are excellent places to begin research on a specific topic.

Please ask for assistance of Library staff at any service desk or online. May your library experience be abundant with enrichment and scholarly achievement!

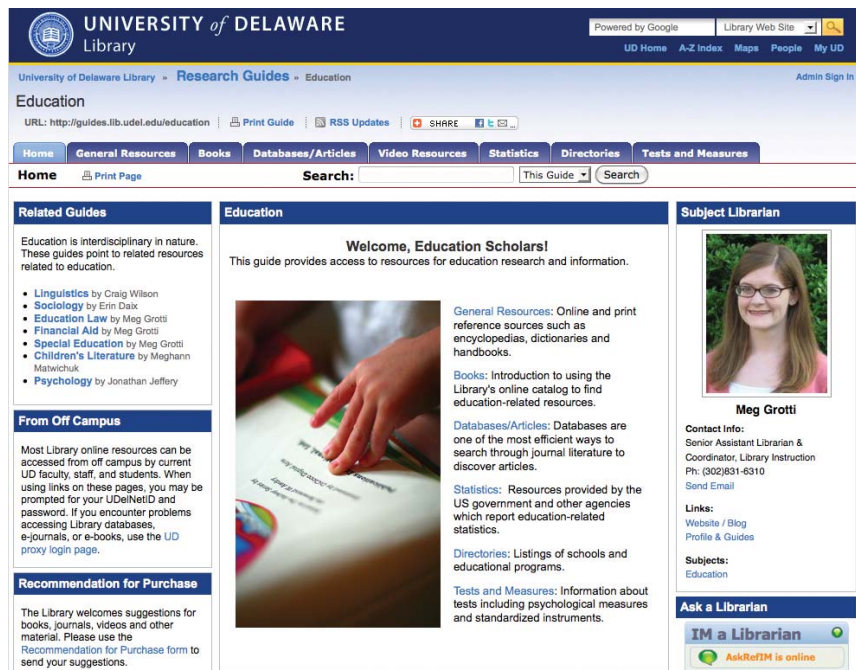

Susan Brynteson
Vice Provost and May Morris Director of Libraries

The new Library home page takes advantage of new standards such as HTML5 (HyperText Markup Language, version 5) and CSS3 (Cascading Style Sheets, version 3) that will allow the Library to take advantage of the features offered by these specifications. Many mobile devices, smartphones and tablet computers, like the iPad, are already using the features of HTML5 and CSS3. By developing with these new specifications in mind, the Library is positioned to smoothly transition its web pages to these and future platforms.

The Library home page URL is www.udel.edu/library

Research Guides: New look for Subject Guides

Research Guides, formerly Subject Guides, is a new resource with enhanced content and functionality to help facilitate research and study for faculty and students. Librarians have created customized guides on a variety of topics, which provide links to appropriate books, databases and websites. The new Research Guides also include interactive features, such as a reference chat box that allows users to chat live with a librarian. From the Library home page, users can select Research Guides or go to guides.lib.udel.edu

This Education Guide is one of more than 150 guides in many disciplines created by the Library.

For Users with Disabilities

Users with disabilities have physical access to the Morris Library through the main entrance ramp and power-assisted doors. Closed captioning is available on designated video stations in the Film and Video Collection Department on the Lower Level of the Morris Library. The Assistive Technology Center on the First Floor is equipped with five computers with Internet access, special application software and large screen monitors. The workstations have Kurzweil 3000, ZoomText for screen magnification, JAWS for Windows and Dragon Naturally Speaking. For assistance or an orientation to the Assistive Technology Center, users may contact the Reference Department at 302-831-2432.

More information may be found at www2.lib.udel.edu/atc/polatc.htm on the Library web.

Library Commons, Bleecker St. Café and 24-hour Study

The Library Commons, located just inside the main entrance of the Morris Library, contains tables and chairs, the Bleecker St. café, vending machines, and both wired and wireless Internet access. The Library Commons is accessible from the terrace on the north side of the Morris Library and the main entrance of the Library. The Library Commons is open 24 hours a day for study during fall and spring semesters. Users may call 302-831-BOOK or go to www2.lib.udel.edu/hours for Library hours. Bleecker St. café information can be found at www.campusdish.com/en-US/CSE/Delaware/Locations/BleeckerSt.htm

To preserve Library collections, equipment and facilities, Library users should not bring food beyond the double glass doors of the Morris Library. Closed or resealable drink containers are permitted. With the financial assistance of Dining Services, patrolling Public Safety staff help the Library maintain an atmosphere conducive to studying and reading.

How to Print from Library Computers

High speed printers are connected to Library computers. To pay for printing, University of Delaware students, faculty and staff swipe their University of Delaware ID cards at the “print release stations” next to printers. Those without UD ID cards may purchase blank Library Copy Cards for $1 at the Student Multimedia Design Center desk or purchase a card from a dispenser on the first and second floors. Funds may be added to both UD ID cards and Library Copy Cards at the Student Multimedia Design Center desk or at the Value Transfer Station, both located on the Lower Level of the Morris Library. Printing from DELCAT, the Library online catalog, is at no charge.

University of Delaware departments may obtain a “Department” UD1/FLEX card through the UD1/FLEX Office, and arrange to add departmental funds to that card by contacting Kathy Phelps at the UD1/FLEX Office at phelps@udel.edu or 302-831-4033.

Group Study Rooms in the Morris Library

The Morris Library has 30 small Group Study Rooms available for the use of students on a first-come, first-served basis. Group Study Rooms, which are located on every floor of the Morris Library, hold from four to twelve students, have electrical outlets, and have data connections for laptop use. The purpose of the Group Study Rooms is to provide a location for student group discussion and collaborative learning relating to the curriculum. The rooms are not available for meetings, for formal classroom instruction, for social purposes, or for any purpose other than group study. The rooms are unlocked at all times. The Morris Library map is helpful in locating Group Study Rooms. www.lib.udel.edu/info/maps/pdf/morris-library-all-floors.pdf

Join the University of Delaware Library Associates

The University of Delaware Library Associates, a “friends of the library” group, support Library collections and programs through contributions from individual and corporate members. The Library Associates contribute to the University of Delaware cultural community by sponsoring three events each year to which all members of the Library Associates are invited. An exhibition opening, an annual dinner and lecture and a faculty lecture in the spring are usually held each year.

All members of the University community, including students, are invited to join the Library Associates. Annual dues begin at $35 with a special rate for students at $5. Membership information is available via email at UDLA@udel.edu, by calling 302-831-2231 or at www2.lib.udel.edu/udla

Forthcoming Event

April 18, 2012: The 2012 Annual Dinner of the University of Delaware Library Associates will feature Jennet Conant, bestselling author of A Covert Affair: Julia Child and Paul Child in the OSS, published in 2011 by Simon & Schuster. The New York Times described Conant as “a diligent researcher and gifted writer.” The hospitality hour will begin at 6 p.m., with dinner and program at 7 p.m. at Arshat Hall, University of Delaware, Wilmington. This event is open to the public with a paid dinner reservation. Cost information will be announced at a later date.

Borrowing Books

- ▶ Books from the University of Delaware Library collection may be borrowed from the Circulation Desk in the Morris Library and any of the branch libraries.
- ▶ A valid University of Delaware ID card is required for borrowing. The individual associated with the ID card is solely responsible for all materials borrowed on his or her card and is liable for overdue fines and charges for lost and damaged materials. ID cards are non-transferable.
- ▶ Overdue notices, recall notices, and item available notices for current UD students, faculty, and staff are sent via email.
- ▶ All library materials must be checked out before they can be taken from the Library. All library users are subject to the inspection of all materials at the exit gate prior to leaving the Library.
- ▶ All items in circulation may be recalled if needed by another researcher. Recall request forms are available within DELCAT, at the Circulation Desk and on the Library web under Request Forms. Borrowing privileges are temporarily suspended if a borrower has an overdue recalled book.
- ▶ Items not requested by other users may be renewed as often as needed. Borrowers with ten or more books overdue have their borrowing privileges temporarily suspended until the overdue material is renewed or returned.

Complete circulation policy information is available on the Library web. Library users may click on Services and then Circulation, or go directly to Circulation Policies at www.lib.udel.edu/ud/circ/circpoln.htm on the Library web.

Renewing Books

UD faculty, students and staff can view and renew their library materials online.

- ▶ From the Library web, click on “Books I Have Checked Out.”
- ▶ Enter your UDeNet ID and password to review your account information and renew your library materials.

Detailed information on using “Books I Have Checked Out” can be found at www.lib.udel.edu/ud/circ/has.htm

Course Reserves & Electronic Reserves

The University of Delaware Library provides on-site course reserve and electronic course reserve services to support class instruction. On-site course reserve materials submitted by faculty are made available in the Reserve Room of the Morris Library or in the branch libraries. Guidelines are available at www.lib.udel.edu/ud/reserve/faculty.html under On-Site Reserves.

In electronic course reserves, the Library scans materials submitted by faculty and posts the digital images for registered students via DELCAT. Faculty interested in providing electronic access to course reserve readings can go to www.lib.udel.edu/ud/reserve/semester.html for more information.

All reserve reading lists are available in DELCAT under the Search Course Reserves section.

Interlibrary Loan

Looking for articles and books that are available only at another library? The University of Delaware Library offers Interlibrary Loan (ILL) to assist users in gaining access to materials owned by other libraries in the United States and abroad. This service is available to University of Delaware faculty, students and staff. Registered users may track the status of their requests, view requested documents in PDF format and more.

Most Interlibrary Loan requests have a fast turnaround time. Eighty percent of articles requested through ILL are delivered to users online within two business days. Most books, DVDs, microfilm and other materials are available for pickup within two weeks of the request.

Logging into the system requires creating an ILL account. First-time users should go to udel.illiad.oclc.org/illiad/logon.html and follow the directions on that page. First-time users must log in with their UDeNet ID and password to confirm eligibility for ILL services, and then select a username and password for their ILL account.

Information about the Interlibrary Loan and hours of service, may be found by contacting the Interlibrary Loan office at 302-831-2236, emailing ill@winsor.lib.udel.edu or visiting www.lib.udel.edu/ud/ill

University of Delaware Library Workshops

The library offers workshops throughout each semester which showcase some of the powerful research tools that are available at the library. Workshops typically provide instruction on individual tools such as databases or on topics of interest such as researching funding opportunities or genealogical information. The library also provides workshops on multimedia programs through the semester. Some examples of workshops include:

Introduction to ARTstor

Covers the basic functions of ARTstor, a digital library of nearly one million images.

Getting the Most out of the Web of Science

Covers research techniques that can be used to analyze the citation history of articles using the Web of Science database.

Introduction to RefWorks and RefWorks Advanced

Workshops provide a hands-on overview of RefWorks, a citation management system that allows users to create and manage references and generate bibliographies.

Research Funding for the Sciences

Focuses upon Library databases which faculty, staff and graduate students in the sciences can use to identify potential funding resources.

Research Funding for the Humanities and Social Sciences

Focuses upon Library databases which faculty, staff and graduate students in the humanities and social sciences can use to identify potential funding resources.

Introduction to Film and Video Collection Resources

Provides an overview of film and video collections available at the University of Delaware Library.

Adobe Fireworks CS4

Covers the basic features of Fireworks' powerful graphic editing tools.

iMovie 2011: Basic to Advanced

Hands-on series of workshops which will explore iMovie's video editing features.

Genealogy for Beginners

Overview of types of records that contain genealogical information and strategies for finding and recording data.

Finding Genealogical Information in Historical American Newspapers

Covers historical newspaper resources available from the University of Delaware Library.

Librarians also offer assistance to faculty and instructors by providing instruction sessions that are tailored to meet the specific goals of each course.

For more information about the content, schedule and registration of these or other Library workshops, users may go to www2.lib.udel.edu/usered/workshops/current.htm

Library workshops are open to UD students, faculty and staff. Genealogy workshops are also open to the public. Seating is limited and registration is required. For questions, call 302-831-2432 or email lib-workshops@udel.edu.

Need Help? Ask a Librarian! www2.lib.udel.edu/ref/asklib

Online Reference Services

Need help with selecting databases or want tips on searching DELCAT, WorldCat Local, library databases or the Internet? Go online and Ask a Librarian! There are four ways that UD faculty, staff and students can obtain online assistance from reference librarians who are available to provide answers to quick factual questions and assistance with sources or search strategies.

► AskRef: Email Reference

Send an email to AskRef and receive a reply within 24 hours (Monday through Friday). Questions may be sent using the AskRef form that is linked from the Ask a Librarian web page.

► AskRef Live!

AskRef Live! is a service that allows the UD community to chat and search web pages with librarians. The chat service is offered through your web browser and no account or special software is required. Following a session, users receive via email a transcript of the online discussion.

► Text Messaging

Text a question to a librarian by using a cell phone and sending a message to 265010. Be sure to include AskRefIM: at the beginning of your message.

► Instant Messaging

UD faculty, staff and students can send an instant message to a librarian for help with questions. Add a library screen name to your buddy list:

AIM: AskRefIM

Google: AskRefIM@gmail.com

MSN: AskRefIM@hotmail.com

Yahoo!: AskRefIM

Individual Consultation and Assistance

Subject specialist librarians are available to meet with faculty, students and staff to provide assistance in identifying appropriate electronic and print resources for coursework or personal research. Librarians can also demonstrate and discuss new library resources and services. Library users can call the Information Desk at 302-831-2965 or contact the appropriate subject specialist librarian at www2.lib.udel.edu/usered/subj.htm to make an appointment.

Reference and Information Desks

A library visit may begin with a stop at the Information Desk, which is located near the entrance to the Morris Library. Staff at this desk answer basic questions about library resources and services, provide directions and direct users to specialized library units. The Reference Desk, located in the Reference Room of the Morris Library, is staffed by professional librarians who assist researchers with database searching or with identifying appropriate library resources. The Reference Room has an extensive collection of printed reference materials and is equipped with computers to access online resources. The Reference Desk receives questions in person, by phone 302-831-2965 and online—see Online Reference Services (p. 5).

Reference Desk Hours

Monday through Thursday	8 a.m. to 9 p.m.
Friday	8 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Saturday	1 p.m. to 5p.m.
Sunday	1 p.m. to 9 p.m.

www.lib.udel.edu/multimedia

The Student Multimedia Design Center on the Lower Level of Morris Library is the place for creating multimedia projects. Library staff members are available to assist users. In the Student Multimedia Design Center users can:

- Borrow laptops, video camera kits, light kits, audio kits, hard drives and more
- Capture and edit video using video editing software
- Rehearse group presentations using a 45" LCD display monitor with SMART board capabilities
- Create a custom soundtrack for video projects
- Package video projects for delivery on DVD, the web, or iPod
- Add money to UD ID cards or, for non-UD users, purchase Library Copy Cards for printing and copying

The 80 computers, 6 studios and 2 classrooms of the Student Multimedia Design Center provide University of Delaware students, faculty and staff access to and assistance with multimedia software and hardware. In the studios, students can record, rehearse and review small group work, edit and capture video, transfer media and record sound. Faculty may reserve a classroom for a hands-on class session. Clusters of computers are arranged in a flexible environment to allow for collaboration and group work. A wide range of copying and scanning equipment is also available.

For information about the Center, including dates of upcoming orientations, students may come to the Lower Level of Morris Library to the Student Multimedia Design Center service desk, consult the Student Multimedia Design Center web page at www.lib.udel.edu/multimedia or call 302-831-8832. The service desk staff also can provide assistance with Microforms, CD-ROMs, Maps, copy services and the Digital Mapping Station (GIS).

For information about using multimedia in courses, faculty may contact Academic Technology Services on the Second Floor of East Hall, call 302-831-0640 or check www.ats.udel.edu

www.udel.edu/library

Books, Videos and More:

Locate many types of resources from the University of Delaware Library by searching the Books, Videos and More tab on the Library home page. Items contained within the collections of libraries around the world can also be searched by selecting “Libraries Worldwide” on the “Advanced Search” screen within this tool.

Articles:

Where to Find Articles Online

The “Articles” tab on the Library home page limits the search to articles and book chapters from WorldCat and a limited number of selected Library databases. To select an individual database from a list of nearly 300, use the databases search box.

DELCAT:

DELCAT is the online catalog of the University of Delaware Library. Use DELCAT to discover if a specific item is available at the Library. DELCAT includes books, journals, maps, DVDs and video, microforms and government documents.

Databases:

The “Articles” tab can be a starting point for research, but for an article search with more precision, go to the Databases search box to locate a specific database by name appropriate to your subject. Many of the article databases incorporate the Library’s “Get It!” function that links researchers to the full-text of articles contained within electronic journals to which the Library subscribes.

E-Journals:

To determine whether the University of Delaware Library provides access to a specific journal, users should type the journal title into the e-journals search box to connect to full-text articles within the journals. More than 80% of University of Delaware Library journal subscriptions are in electronic form only.

Research Guides:

Use this search box to discover the key resources that librarians have recommended for your research area. Research Guides point to databases, e-journals and internet resources, and the guides provide time-saving research tips.

ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

RefWorks — Organize References Online!

Managing references and creating bibliographies for research papers have always been time-consuming, complex tasks. RefWorks at www2.lib.udel.edu/database/refworks.html will save time and make the task easier. This web-based citation manager allows creation of a personal database by importing references from online databases. These references are used in automatically formatting the paper and the bibliography in seconds.

The University of Delaware Library subscribes to RefWorks for all UD users and offers workshops throughout the year covering the basics of setting up a RefWorks account, exporting citations from research databases and importing the citations to a personal RefWorks account. Additional workshops cover the Write-N-Cite feature, which makes it easy to insert properly formatted notes and citations into an MS Word document.

Information regarding RefWorks workshops is available at www2.lib.udel.edu/usered/workshops/current.htm

RefWorks is listed with 300 other Library databases. Users should first log on to a database to search and then log on to RefWorks.

Looking for Grants or Fellowships?

Thousands of grants are available to faculty, staff researchers, graduate students and nonprofit administrators who carefully research the philanthropic market. Several Library databases help users quickly identify grant makers that are most likely to fund their projects. The grants databases are:

- ▶ COS Funding Opportunities, an international resource for information on federal and private research funding in all disciplines.
- ▶ Foundation Directory Online Professional, a database for nonprofit agencies seeking grants from foundations, corporate donors, or grant-making public charities.
- ▶ Foundation Grants to Individuals Online, an online directory for individuals seeking scholarships, fellowships, awards or grants to individuals.
- ▶ Grants.gov, a common web site for all federal grant opportunities. The site is searchable by keyword, federal funding agency or date.

The Library is a Foundation Center Cooperating Collection, one of more than 400 reference collections located throughout the world. In addition to the grants databases, the Library maintains a specialized collection of books and journals on grantsmanship and proposal writing.

A brief tutorial on funding resources at the Library is available by appointment with the Collection supervisor, Carol Rudisell, by sending an email to rudisell@udel.edu or by calling 302-831-6942.

Library workshops on effective methods for searching the databases are offered each semester. Information on upcoming Library workshops is available at www2.lib.udel.edu/usered/workshops/current.htm

Web of Science

Web of Science is one of the most important databases accessible via the University of Delaware Library. It provides references, abstracts, and links to full text for more than 10,700 international journals in the sciences, social sciences, and the arts and humanities. It is a citation database that includes the Science Citation Index Expanded (1900-present), Social Sciences Citation Index (1900-present) and Arts & Humanities Citation Index (1975-present).

Web of Science links references to both the online full text of articles in journals and to related articles, thus allowing a broad search across disciplines. The power of Web of Science as a research tool is due to its comprehensive subject coverage and its ability to link related articles through their bibliographic citations. The citation data allows a library user to begin with a known, relevant journal article and find other, more recent articles that cite it.

Web of Science is the premier database in the “Get It!” service linking to full-text journal articles. Web of Science is available at www.lib.udel.edu/db

Institutional Repository dspace.udel.edu

The Institutional Repository is a library service that uses DSpace open-source software to make University of Delaware original research accessible through a single interface. The repository contains technical reports, working papers, conference papers and images and is limited to materials for which the copyright is owned by the author or the University. The Institutional Repository is available at dspace.udel.edu

Information about placing research in the Institutional Repository is available by calling the Administration office of the Library at 302-831-2231 or by sending an email to Sandra Millard at skm@udel.edu, Gregg Silvis at gregg@udel.edu, William Simpson at wsimpson@udel.edu or Susan Brynteson at susanb@udel.edu.

ARTstor: Over 1,000,000 Digital Images

The Library subscribes to digital image databases, including ARTstor. University of Delaware students, faculty and staff can incorporate photos or graphics into their course, project or web page created for educational purposes using resources provided by the Library.

The ARTstor Digital Library is comprised of digital images of art objects including architecture, painting, photography, sculpture, prints, decorative arts and design, archaeological and anthropological objects and other materials that are related to visual and material culture. Images are from all time periods—pre-history to 21st century, all cultures and all geographic areas.

The ARTstor image collection at www.artstor.org contains over 1,000,000 digital images which support teaching and research primarily across the humanities, but also in areas such as civil engineering and the history of science and technology. The size and breadth of this collection make it a valuable instructional resource for all disciplines.

ARTstor database of digital images

Film and Video Collection

The Library Film and Video Collection Department has a collection of more than 25,000 video and film programs and is located in the Morris Library on the Lower Level. The department includes 35 individual viewing carrels equipped with a variety of film and video players. New materials are added throughout the year in support of the curriculum.

Film and Video Scheduling & Media Viewing Room

University of Delaware faculty, graduate teaching assistants and professional staff may schedule films and videos for classroom use, research and approved programmatic functions.

A 49-seat viewing room may be scheduled for use by University of Delaware faculty, instructors and authorized teaching assistants for audiovisual presentations to classes.

The Film and Video Collection Department has a Media Research Room available for University of Delaware faculty and instructors who need to research and preview films and videos for academic research and curriculum support.

Film and Video Circulation

Film and Video Collection films and videos are available for checkout to University of Delaware faculty, staff, undergraduate and graduate students. Borrowers must present a valid University of Delaware ID card to check out materials.

Some films and videos are restricted due to heavy instructional use and so may be checked out only by faculty, graduate students and professional staff. Undergraduate students and other users may view these restricted items in the Film and Video Collection Department's viewing carrels. CDs and audio cassettes are shelved on the Lower Level near the south elevator.

For more information, library users can go to www.lib.udel.edu/filmandvideo on the Library web.

Special Collections: Rare Books, Manuscripts and Exhibitions

The Special Collections Department is located on the Second Floor of the Morris Library. Holdings include books, manuscripts, maps, prints, photographs, broadsides, periodicals, pamphlets, ephemera and realia from the 15th to the 21st century. The collections complement the Library general collections with strengths in the arts; English, Irish and American literature; history and Delawareana; horticulture; history of science and technology; and the book arts.

These materials are available for research use by all University of Delaware faculty, staff, students and visiting scholars. Materials do not circulate, and photocopying of bound items is restricted. A laptop computer is available for use in Special Collections.

Special Collections holdings are distinguished by their subject matter, age, rarity, association with the author or earlier owners, special illustrations or binding, textual or historical significance, fragile format or other criteria.

Among the collections are manuscripts and significant editions of works by selected 20th century American authors, for example, Alice Dunbar-Nelson, Tennessee Williams, and Paul Bowles.

Shakespeare, William, 1564-1616.
Mr. William Shakespeares comedies, histories, and tragedies / published according to the true original copies. London : Printed by Tho. Cotes, for John Smethwicke, and are to be sold at his shop in Saint Dunstons Church-yard, 1632.

Exhibitions of materials from Special Collections are featured in the Special Collections Exhibition Gallery with two major exhibitions each year and are occasionally accompanied by a published guide or catalog. The exhibitions also contribute to scholarship in a field, interpret aspects of the collections and commemorate historic and cultural events. Adjacent to the Exhibition Gallery is the Lincoln Exhibit which features items from the Lincoln Collection. Online versions of exhibitions, as well as other online resources, including finding aids for many manuscript and archival collections, are available at www.lib.udel.edu/ud/spec via the Special Collections web.

Exhibitions on the First Floor of the Morris Library highlight areas of the Library general collections.

The Mark Samuels Lasner Collection

The Mark Samuels Lasner Collection is housed in the Morris Library and is associated with the Special Collections Department. The collection focuses on British literature and art of the period 1850 to 1900, with an emphasis on the Pre-Raphaelites and on the writers and illustrators of the 1890s. Its holdings comprise 7,500 first and other editions (including signed and association copies), manuscripts, letters, works on paper and ephemera. Although the materials in the Mark Samuels Lasner Collection are not listed in DELCAT, access is available by appointment.

For more information library users may call 302-831-3250, email marksl@udel.edu or visit www.lib.udel.edu/ud/spec/msl/index.htm on the Library web.

LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

Librarian Subject Area Responsibilities

Librarians are responsible for collection development and library instruction in subject areas that support the curriculum and research needs of the University of Delaware. All suggestions for books, journals, media, electronic media, microforms and journal backfiles should be forwarded to the librarian responsible for the subject area. All requests from faculty for discipline specific instruction should be referred to subject librarians. The following is a list of librarians subject specialists who make recommendations for the collection development decision-making process for both traditional and electronic library resources. Faculty who wish to make suggestions regarding desired library materials are encouraged to contact the appropriate subject specialist directly.

Title IX

The University of Delaware does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, religion, age, veteran status, gender identity or expression, or sexual orientation in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies and to serve as the overall campus coordinator for purposes of Title IX compliance: Bindu Kolli, Chief Policy Advisor, Office of Equity and Inclusion, 305 Hullihen Hall, 302-831-8063. The following individuals have been designated as deputy Title IX coordinators: for Athletics, Jennifer W. Davis, VP for Finance and Administration, 220 Hullihen Hall, 302-831-2769; and for Student Life, Dawn Thompson, Dean of Students/AVP for Student Life, 101 Hullihen Hall, 302-831-8939. Inquiries concerning the application of anti-discrimination laws may be referred to the Title IX coordinators or to the Office for Civil Rights, United States Department of Education. For further information on notice of nondiscrimination, visit wdcrobcolp01.ed.gov/CFAPPS/OCR/contact.us.cfm for the address and phone number of the U.S. Department of Education office that serves your area.

Copying and Printing in the Library

UD students, faculty and staff:

Use University of Delaware ID card.

Non-UD users:

Purchase a blank copy card at the Student Multimedia Design Center on the Lower Level and add value, or from Copy Card dispensers on the first and second floors.

Add money to cards:

Use the Value Transfer Station on the Lower Level or by one of the deposit methods at www.udel.edu/ud1flex. Staff at the Student Multimedia Design Center can add value to the card.

Staff may also make copies for users for a fee.
